

Norwood Village Residence

Bellevue, WA

This home remodel is nestled on the hillside surrounded by forestry, featuring a relaxing pacific northwest vibe with the hint of contemporary flair.

Focusing on unobstructed views, this design utilizes exposed double glulam framing and integrated columns, along with clean detailing. The lateral shearwalls are within the central portion of the house, allowing views along the perimeter. Expansive glazing floods the interior with natural light and the warmth of the timber framing.

Fast + Epp

Status
Completed 2020

Project Cost
Undisclosed

Area
2,800 ft² (260 m²)

Architect
Undisclosed

Client
Chesmore Buck Architecture

